

Why I Work by Referral

When you need to find great service, you feel more comfortable when you get a referral from someone who you know and trust. As a real estate agent who works by referral, I know that level of trust is especially important when it comes to the biggest financial decision you will ever make — buying or selling a house.

More Time to Serve You

My primary source of new business is referrals from people who know and trust me — not purchased lists, ads or billboards. This allows me to fully dedicate myself to working with you and providing exceptional service.

Service That Will Exceed Your Expectations

A real estate transaction can be a stressful and emotional time. As a trusted real estate professional, I will work with you every step of the way to help make the process go as smoothly as possible.

Service That Continues After the Sale

After the sale, I'll stay in touch by sending you information each month on a variety of subjects. I'll also call from time to time to check in to see if there is anything you need.

Working by referral is all about trust. And let's face it, when we're seeking great service, we look for someone we can trust.

What Can I Do for You?

There are many ways I can be of service to you outside of an active real estate transaction. Please don't hesitate to ask me for a referral to a vendor or service.

Rely on My List of Professionals

Consider me your source of referrals for all types of businesses, whether related to real estate or not. I have partnered with competent professionals who will be happy to serve you, such as:
